FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

2012 IDITAROD RESTART SET FOR 2 PM (AK TIME) IN WILLOW, ALASKA

Anchorage, Alaska - Saturday, March 3, 2012 - IDITAROD XL Re-Start is now a matter of hours away. At 2 pm Alaska Time (6 pm Eastern Time), Knik Musher Ray Redington, Jr.'s team will be the first team to leave the chute on Willow Lake. From there the other 65 teams will follow Redington's lead and head out toward the Big-Su River working their way to Yentna Station and beyond.

GCI Channel 1 will provide live coverage of the restart along with the Alaska Rural Communication Service reaching out to Alaskans around the state beginning at 1:30 pm Alaska time. The Iditarod Insider will also stream the broadcast live around the world at the same time.

In addition, O'Hana Media Group, the Official Radio Partner of the Iditarod Trail Sled Dog Race, will provide live coverage of the race on both KBYR AM and KMBQ FM beginning at 1:30 pm Alaska Time.

The Iditarod Insider Tracker will begin deploying From Willow, Alaska as the teams leave the starting line. To find out how to become an Insider log on to www.iditarod.com and click on the Iditarod Insider tab.
