

Alaskan huskies have bushy tails/tales to help protect their/they're/there noses from the cold.

After the mushers left Shaktoolik, the wind blue/blew hard along Norton Bay.

The lead dog follows its knows/nose to the finish line.

The mushers could here/hear the dogs barking in the distance.

The weather/whether along the Iditarod Trail changes frequently.

Always where/wear warm mittens when out on the trail.

The mushers can see/sea the finish line in Nome as they travel down Front Street.

The Iditarod Air Force flew/flu/flue from checkpoint to checkpoint.

To/Two/Too mushers arrived in Takotna at the same time/thyme.

The pies in Takotna are a sweet/suite treat for the mushers passing threw/through.